Human Concerns

Agape Community Meal Wednesday, February 29th

WHO: We NEED YOU!

WHAT: To prepare and serve a meal for the needy.

WHERE: Agape Community Center - 6100 N. 42nd Street, Milwaukee

WHY: In a large parish such as ours people feel that someone else will step forward to fill the need. That is not always the case. St. William's prepares and serves this meal only on the 5th Wednesday of a month.....a few times a year.

We need you to sign up in either lobby to help us on February 29th. Sign-up clipboards can be found in the Activities stand under the Human Concerns section. You can either carpool with us from the Vercelli House or meet us at the Agape Center! Shirley & Jerry Stanke and Lonnie Rubis are our Coordinators for Agape.

Monthly Reverse Collection Men's Homeless Shelter, Waukesha

Now in its fourth year, and fostered though the Hebron House, this shelter is in an old school building on the north side of Waukesha which has room to sleep 35 men. The space provides warmth, a place to shower and a breakfast for these men who would otherwise be out in the cold overnight (a shivering thought!) Their needs are basic.....

- Disposable Razors
- Shaving Cream
- Pocket size tissues
- Hand wipes
- Personal size toiletries

Thank you for your continued support!

Lenten Bible Study

Join an interactive group discussing each of this year's Gospels of Lent before they are proclaimed at Mass. We will explore the life of Christ before his death and resurrection through these Scripture passages. We may also explore the other readings of each Sunday because of their close connection to spreading the Good News of the Savior.

Pat Knuth is a St. William parishioner with a Master's of Theological Studies from St. Francis Seminary. Pat has led many studies in the past.
